Program for Aug. 27

Can you tell Steve Worden is passionate about radio? Especially Newark Radio!!! In 2009 he started the concept of a community radio station and now the tower is up, he has a 501(C)3, financial supporters, and community involvement. Now he wants to train citizen journalists to tell their own stories, report on organization activities, and share research projects. With short attention span, the listeners need to hear snippets that will draw them in to listening to entire short segments. This is "listen" radio as opposed to "talk" radio. Steve is now looking for sponsors, advocates, and evangelists to spread the word that Low Power FM radio is once again back in Newark!!! Stay tuned for WIZU 99.9FM

1st QUARTER INVOICES NOW LATE!

Thought for the Week:

Not taught in any Science class: Law of the Result

When you try to prove to someone a machine won't work, IT WILL!

Welcome New Members

Cindi Viviano, Dennis Greenhouse, and Michael Smith have been approved for membership!
Welcome them into the fold!

E-club makeup with dollar credit!!

If you missed a meeting, and you go online at www.rotaryclubone.org to do your makeup, you will see a notation at the bottom asking for a voluntary donation. They suggest you give the same amount as you would pay for our meal - $12. Please be sure to give a copy of your receipt to Secretary Evelyn so she knows of the donation. Then, in addition to getting attendance credit, you will also get credit on your next club invoice for that meeting makeup.

In Memory of Tracey

Tracey Holmes was a huge part of the success of the Courtyard Newark in being recognized for their community involvement. She was most passionate about the MarriOtters, a swim program for autistic children, and working with the deaf, hiring and training them to work in the hotel. Last week, in memory of Tracey, our Board of Directors approved a $500 donation to the Delaware School for the Deaf to assist with their field trips. Representatives from the school will be here today to accept the gift.

New Members applying

We seem to have several membership applications in the pipeline. If you have someone in mind, get their name to Polly Sierer for a formal invitation to join us for a meeting.
